LOW-COST PET VACCINATIONS FOR ONE DAY ONLY!

-- Pueblo Animal Services hosts low-cost vaccination clinic on April 19 -

April 15, 2013 Colorado Springs, CO – Pueblo Animal Services (PAS), a division of Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region (HSPPR), is offering a low-cost rabies vaccination clinic on April 19. Rabies vaccinations will be $10 per animal. Only cash will be accepted, and supplies are limited to the first 100 dogs and cats. Microchips are also available for $15.00.

Other vaccinations will be offered for $10 each. Distemper/parvovirus combo and bordatella vaccine is recommended for dogs. FVRCP or rhino/calici/panleukopenia combination vaccine is recommended for cats. These diseases are all potentially fatal, are prevalent in North America and are easily transmitted to your pet.

Making sure your pet is vaccinated is one of the most important duties of a responsible pet owner. Not only do vaccinations help keep your pet safe and help prevent infectious diseases in Colorado, but they can also prevent the spread of diseases that can pass from animals to humans. In the case of rabies, a vaccination is not only a good idea, it’s the law. Rabies is deadly to both animals and humans, and the vaccine is mandatory for both cats and dogs in Pueblo County.
